Introduction:

The Dunman High National Police Cadet Corps (NPCC) aims to inculcate civic responsibility, resilience and teamwork in its cadets, seeking to ultimately develop a student holistically. Cadets participate in a variety of activities including adventure camps, campcraft competition, drill competition and 0.22 revolver shooting competition. NPCC also exposes cadets to different facets of the Singapore Police Force. Cadets have the opportunity to participate in Crime Scene Investigation course and visit various Police establishments. In line with the government's emphasis on SGSecure, cadets also engage their peers and the community in creating awareness of emergency preparedness through the Community Safety and Security Project and the Police Youth Ambassador Project.

Achievements:

Unit Overall Proficiency Award: Gold (2016 to 2019)

Inter-Unit 0.22 Revolver Shooting Competition: 1st Position for Team Category (Female) in 2018 and 2019, 2nd Position for Individual Category (Female) in 2019, and 8th Position for Individual Category (Male) in 2018 and 2019.

Inter-Unit Drill Competition 2019: 22nd Position among 128 participating units.
