Introduction:

Community Service Club (CSC) is a student organization comprising of students passionate about service learning. There are great opportunities to reach out to people from different walks of life and serve them wholeheartedly. There are three areas which members of the Community Service Club can serve in-- namely: children, elderly and the environment. KidsREAD (for children), Council for Third Age (C3A) and South East Community Development Council (SECDC) for the elderly, and the Environment.

Our KidsREAD programme allows members to volunteer with children while our C3A and SECDC programmes allows members to volunteer with the elderly. All our programs follow the guiding principles of reaching out to people to serve the community and touch lives in a long-term sustainable way. Student leaders are developed to care for the society and lead Values in Action Projects.

Students who are passionate and enthusiastic about the importance of making a difference to the environment can participate in a variety of projects and initiatives. They seek to inspire the school to go green and increase everyone's awareness towards environmental protection and conservation through various outreach programmes.
